Growing Conditions

The 2021 growing season started with a mild winter that turned into a warm spring. Bud break and bloom were earlier than the previous year by at least two weeks. Early summer was warm and dry with conditions changing to warm and wet by August. As September approached, disease pressure was high and getting higher throughout the harvest. Careful attention was needed in the vineyard and in the cellar to ensure high quality.

Winemaking

The fruit was machine-harvested and then went directly to the press. Multiple fermentations in stainless steel and neutral oak barrels provided many options for the blending of this wine.
