ABOUT THIS WINE

The name of the estate “Fronton de Oro” refers to a huge rock that shines with sunlight (the one that adorns their label) known locally as “El Frontón”.

The Fronton de Oro Tinto, is one of the most easily recognizable wines from the Canary Islands.

TASTING NOTES

APPEARANCE

Cherry red colour with violet edges in the middle, clean and bright.

NOSE

The varietal aromas stand out, with a background of red fruits, and certain notes of oak from its time in wood. Bitter cherry, pepper, volcanic soil tones, tree bark and a lovely array of sweet botanicals.

PALATE

On the palate, it enters lightly, evolves marking a correct balance of flavours, and closes with a soft and pleasant bitterness and a long final persistence in which the varietal characteristics continue to stand out.
